Overall Expectations

- Ask for help when needed before falling behind on deadlines
- Be willing to help each other instead of displaying an “it’s not my job” attitude
- Be flexible to assist with group needs
- Consistently communicate about where you are at with the project via Team Slack Channel
- Attend all group meetings, communicating if you need to miss a class ahead of time
- Treat it like a job, not like a typical group project
 - You will be working on a project that may mimic how you will work on a dev team
 - If you consistently do not show up to work or are not doing the tasks that you committed to completing, you may be removed from the course.
- Make a project the group is excited to work on

Communication (how will your group communicate?)

- Slack
- Zoom calls
- in - person

Giving Feedback (how will feedback always be communicated and where will it be shared?)

- Use slack, mostly in group chat
- On zoom
- Give both positive and constructive feedback, explain reason and suggestion in polite/respectful/professional manner

Conflict Resolution (when there is conflict within the group, what will need to happen for it to be resolved)

- Communicate with group members about concerns in a respectful way
- Try to solve the problem internally first

- Try to address concerns quickly

Workload (how will you ask for help, how will you divide up tasks?)

1. Give 3 features per person
 - a. Back end: Coleman and Vartika
 - b. Front end: Rebecca and Robert
2. Use slack and zoom to ask for help from each other first and from Sammie (TA) second
3. Ask each other about what we feel comfortable working on and divide tasks accordingly
4. Try to give an equitable workload
5. Be open to learning
